

Gujarat Federation organised International Co-operative Day

Gujarat Urban Co-operative Banks Federation and Kalupur Commercial Co-op. Bank Ltd. jointly organized the Celebration of International Co-operative Day on 4th July 2015 (Saturday) in the premises of Kalupur Bank. To realize the objective of "Choose Cooperative, Choose Equality", a theme announced by UNO & ICA, Kalupur Bank had invited 125 women entrepreneurs from the very poor strata of society. They all were felicitated by the Director of the Board Shri Bhalabhai Patel. Number of participants narrated their experiences of establishing their profession and expressed that Kalupur Bank has changed their lives. In the beginning Chairman of the Bank, Shri Navnitbhai Patel welcomed all participants and informed that how all are linked with co-operative movement of the world. The Guest of Honour Dr. R.K. Shah, founder Chairman of Karnavati Bank appreciated the efforts of the Kalupur Bank in linking unbanked people to bank. Shri R.N. Joshi, IAS (Retd.), CEO of Gujarat Urban Co-operative Banks Federation also appreciated the efforts of Kalupur Bank and narrated the importance of the day all over the world.

Invitee Director of the Bank Ms. Mittalben Patel explained in detail the status of nomadic tribes and how they were provided micro credit and how were established by getting permanent home as well as employment. During the event, National Vice President of